The Salvation Army Kroc Center Features New Membership Benefits at a FREE OPEN HOUSE!

Experience all of the Kroc Center has to offer in one day!

What: The Salvation Army Kroc Center is opening its doors to the community for FREE on Saturday, January 14th. Guests are encouraged to bring the whole family and to come dressed to workout or swim! Our trained Day Camp counselors will host a fun and exciting child care area, so parents can take guided tours, and drop in on free exercise classes both in the gym and in the pool!

There will also be fitness assessments, great deals on membership and personal training packages.

This is a great opportunity to stick to your New Year's Resolutions by starting your exercise and fitness routine at the Kroc Center!

Why: A chance to see why the 12.4 acre Salvation Army Kroc Center is an amazing place to explore your potential without breaking the bank!

Who: Last year, this event drew a crowd of more than 800!

When: Saturday, January 14, 2012
10am – 2pm

Where: 6845 University Avenue, in Rolando

Become a member of The Salvation Army Kroc Center during the month of January and registration is FREE. That's a $99 savings! Sign up at the Open House and get a FREE Kroc Gift. There is no annual commitment and adult memberships start as low as $26 a month. It's the best deal in town!

The Salvation Army Ray and Joan Kroc Corps Community Center provides opportunities that facilitate positive, life-changing experiences through arts, athletics, life-long learning, spiritual discovery and community service.
